Good of the Order

Sam reported that the Charity Auction is looking for donated merchandise, such as old wall scrolls.

In response to questions, Phillip reported that Outreach volunteers also have to be staff, and that generally, your entry cost into the target event is covered.

Phillip answered a question stating that Doernbecher Children’s Hospital is our charity choice.

Phillip answered a question clarifying that we are a member of JASO. Sam explained that JASO is a collection of local Oregon businesses that support Japanese and American business collaboration. It’s an opportunity for us to spread the word of Kumoricon via other means and opens other business opportunities.

There was a comment that we don’t make it easy for volunteers to join. Several directors solicited interest.
A meeting attendee encouraged people to watch Interview with Monster Girls on Crunchyroll so we can get a second season.

In response to a question asking how we were involved, Phillip and Sammi explained that we helped promote the ONE OK ROCK concert with a ticket giveaway because we have connections with Mike Thrasher Presents, and this particular concert was of interest to our attendees.

Multiple meeting attendees reported on multiple local movie showings:

- Fairy Tail is playing in both dub and sub over the next few days at the Kiggins Theatre.
- Bride of the Ancient Magus is receiving an encore showing.
- In This Corner of the World is being released.
- A Ghibli festival is occurring through Fathom Events, at Regal and Cinemark theaters. The next showing is Castle in the Sky.

- Kurosawa’s Seven Samurai will be showing at the Hollywood Theatre.
- The Hollywood Theatre has recurring events for Samurai Sunday and Kung Fu Tuesday.

Jason reminded that the next meetings are September 16, October 1, and October 15.

In response to a question, Phillip stated that meeting attendance isn’t required. Jason elaborated by stating that you don’t have to attend all general meetings, but that it is highly recommend that you usually attend the October 1 and 15 meetings, at which Operations presents a general policy and rules session. Both meetings contain mostly the same information. It is not strictly required for all staff; attendance requirement is based on your particular position. There is also typically a training session on day 0. Phillip reiterated that the training is really useful.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:56 pm by Phillip Koop.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeff Tyrrell, Secretary
