Hey everyone! We're looking forward to this year!

- Working with other departments to get squared away; led our annual budget meeting!
- I have new departments this year, like Charity! Been meeting with them to plan things out.
- I have a Discord channel now, if folks need to reach out or just want to chat.
- For now, our current plan is to keep doing meetings online.

We are still currently planning on having a physical convention in November this year.
That said, we are watching things very closely to make sure it will be safe.
We miss you all!

Things are rough, and it's still going to take more time, but there's a light at the end of the tunnel.
Hang in there!
