Parent permission. If you are under age 18, a parent permission and liability release form is required to attend Kumoricon. This form is available on the Registration page of the website. This form must be turned in when checking in to the convention (please do not mail it). Also, attendees under age 13 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian who is also a paid member.

No refunds. We're sorry, but we don't allow membership transfers or refunds. Please contact registration@kumoricon.org if you have any questions.

Event code of conduct. You must abide by the code of conduct of each of our events, and we may change them without notice. The most up-to-date Kumoricon code of conduct is always at <https://www.kumoricon.org/code-of-conduct>

Email contact and privacy. As a Kumoricon Event Member, we may contact you! We'd like to send you a brief newsletter occasionally—just a few times per year. We might also need to contact you if there's a problem requiring attention. You may unsubscribe from newsletter-type messages. Your email address and other details will not be sold or rented in any individualized or personally identifiable form.

Consent to photography. You may be photographed or video-recorded at Kumoricon and our events, and we may publish these photos and videos without further notice to you.

Limitation of liability. Altonimbus Entertainment (the organization which presents Kumoricon) and its personnel are not responsible for the actions of our attendees and other third parties. Civil and medical emergencies are handled by appropriate authorities rather than Altonimbus or our staff.
